

Experience the World's Most Complete Art Deco City

Join us for an extraordinary journey to Napier, New Zealand, for the 2026 Art Deco Festival - a celebration of architecture, fashion, and culture in one of the world's most remarkable Art Deco destinations.

A Unique Architectural Heritage

Following a devastating earthquake in 1931, Napier was rebuilt in the Art Deco style of the era, creating a stunning collection of preserved architecture that earned the city UNESCO World Heritage status. The city features over 140 original Art Deco buildings, making it the most complete and significant group of Art Deco architecture in the world.

The Festival Experience

The annual Art Deco Festival transforms Napier into a living museum, where:

- Vintage cars line the streets
- Residents and visitors dress in period costumes
- Jazz bands perform in historic venues
- Guided architectural tours reveal the city's fascinating history
- Special evening events recreate the glamour of the 1930s

Exclusive Group Opportunity

We are organizing an exclusive trip for Art Deco enthusiasts across the United States. This carefully curated experience includes:

- Group events
- Activities during the Art Deco Festival
- Optional extensions to explore New Zealand's cultural and natural wonders
